

Vicky was born in Missouri but has lived her entire life in Iowa. She played softball growing up and due to conflicts with cheerleading did not get the opportunity to play organized volleyball in school. However, she has always enjoyed playing. It was the fall of 2003 when she first played wallyball and has been addicted ever since. She has been a participant in all of the state tournaments held in Iowa and played twice in Minnesota. She has been playing leagues 2 nights per week and for a few years played as many as four nights a week.

Vicky holds a Masters in Science, Management degree with Change Management specialty, a BA in Computer Information Systems and is PMP certified project manager by PMI. She is employed as a Sr. IT Project Manager contractor for IBM working at John Deere in Moline IL. She is currently married to Bob Danielson. Vicky has a son and two daughters and two stepsons and one stepdaughter. The Danielson's reside in Davenport Iowa. She enjoys reading, travelling and spending time with family. She also volunteers as a local leader, holding the office of regional chapter liaison for the Association of Technology Professionals (AITP.) In the past she held the offices of Executive Vice President, President and Past-President for AITP. She is also a member of the local PMI Chapter of the Quad Cities.
